

INEBRIATE FARM WILL BE LOCATED AT KINGS PARK

Mayor and Comptroller Have Approved 500 Acres Opposite Insane Asylum.

(Special to The Evening World.) KINGS PARK, L. I., Feb. 5.—On option on a five-hundred acre tract of land, has been obtained here by new York City authorities on which the proposed Inebriate Farm is to be established. The property was secured at a uniform price of $25 an acre, is located one-quarter of a mile from the Long Island Railroad station and is adjacent to the State's asylum for the insane.

The members of the Board of Insane, including President Thomas J.
Cotton, Rev. William Morrison, secretary, Dr. John Dorrance, Rev. John J.
Hughes, Dr. William Browning and others, declare that the selection of the Kings Park site will be approved.
Mayor Gaynor has inspected the property and it is understood that he agrees with the members of the Board of Insane, and Comptroller Frederickson that the site found here is the best of many suggested.

The site is across the road from the boundary of the asylum grounds and remote from private interests, whose holdings might otherwise be detrimentally affected by the close presence of the "house" farm.
The first report of the Inebriate Board indicated that a site in Smith-town had been chosen. This report at once stirred the members of the Smithtown Board of Trade, who held a meeting at once and concluded to fight the city.

BURGLAR HAD TO FLEE.

Capt. Fauriol's finger print squad are taking copies to-day of the finger marks found on the safe in the real estate office of Charles R. Fauriol, at No. 45 East Houston street. An unsuccessful attempt to blow open the safe was made some time between Saturday evening and early to-day.

The burglars, evidently novices, entered the place from the rear, climbing a fence and using a ten foot ladder.
They drilled three holes around the combination knob on the safe. The explosion blew the knob to pieces, wrecked some of the office furniture and broke the brass door leading from the rear to the front office, but the safe remained more effectively locked than before. The burglars fled, leaving fourteen drill-bits, a pair of pliers and an electric pocket lamp on the floor near the safe.

SENTENCES SLAYER WHOM SISTER COULD NOT SAVE.

James McDermott Is Given Prison Sentence for Killing, Despite Repetition of Her Confession.

James McDermott, the nineteen-year-old youth who stabbed to death Charles Muldoon, the Customs House inspector, in a saloon brawl last March, was sentenced to not less than four years and six months and not more than eight years and six months in Sing Sing prison by Judge Foster in General Sessions to-day.

Before the Court passed sentence Mrs.
Theresa Muldoon, the boy's sister, repeated her confession that she and not her brother had killed Muldoon. Judge Foster allowed her to take the witness stand and hysterically proclaim her guilt. He also permitted her to denounce the testimony of several witnesses. Mrs. Annie Vaughan was allowed to make a statement in her kinsman's behalf, based upon her sister's confession. Then, in passing sentence, the Judge said:

"This case was simply another tragedy due to a barroom brawl. The prisoner has not denied he did the slay-ing. He simply said he could not remember what happened—that he was too drunk to know what he was doing or remember afterward. He has had a fair trial. The jury listened to the confession of his sister and weighed it for what it was worth."

FIRE RUINS REVEAL CRIME.

Man, Woman and Girl Believed Slain Before Home Was Burned.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Feb. 5.— Indications that Harvey Hurst, his wife and Elsie Adams, sixteen years old, were murdered before their home, at Delaware, was burned were found in the ruins of the residence to-day. Each of the victims had evidently sustained wounds about the head before they were cremated.

Search in the ruins of the Hurst residence this morning revealed the three bodies. First examination of the charred corpses convinced physicians that the three had been killed before the house was burned down. There were gaping wounds in the skull of each. Apparently the wounds had been inflicted by a heavy hammer while Hurst, his wife and their young kinswoman slept.
County authorities began an immediate investigation, but found no clue to the slayer.

Schooner's Crew Saved.
LIVERPOOL, England, Feb. 5.—The crew of the British schooner Hibernia has been picked up at sea by the British steamer Denis, which left Galveston on Jan. 17 for this port, and has just reported by wireless. The Hibernia, which was on the way from Hantsport, N. S., to Barbados, was abandoned on Jan. 27 in latitude 37.5, longitude 54.29.
She was then breaking up.

Is Shot as Result of Strike.
John Forkey, a platform foreman for J. W. Allen, a truckman of No. 23 Washington street, was shot in the side, this afternoon, while at work on the Clyde Line pier at the foot of Canal street. He was taken to the Hudson Street Hospital, but his wound is not serious. The injured man told the police he was shot by Gilbert Tier, as a result of trouble arising from the recent grocery wagon drivers' strike.
